

TOP 10 TIPS FOR REVISION

START EARLY

No, we're not talking about setting the alarm for 5am. Start in February, so you're not pulling all-nighters the week before your exams.

QUIET PLEASE!

Irritating siblings driving you up the wall and away from your studies? Get Mum or Dad to lay the law down so you can revise without distractions.

FIND MEMORABLE WAYS TO REMEMBER THINGS

Henry Eight had six mates. He went to heaven in 1547. Then it was Liz who did the biz, And in 1603 she was RIP.

TEAMWORK WORKS

There's no 'i' in team (even though there are two in revision). Anyway, revising with a friend can make it easier to stick to a regular schedule.

DON'T FALL IN LOVE

It's hard to think about the Napoleonic Wars with a new worldie on your mind. For just a few months, don't listen to your heart, listen to your teachers.

WORK NOW, PLAY LATER

Despite sharing the same last three letters, procrastination and revision don't go well together. Work ASAP, so you can relax later without guilt.

TAKE BREAKS

If that's all you do, you're heading for trouble. But if you've been studying for an hour and your concentration starts to wander, it's time you did too.

MAKE REVISION REWARDING

Do what you don't like (revision), then do what you do like (gaming, socialising and telling mates you haven't even started revising yet).

LISTEN TO YOUR BODY CLOCK

Night owl or morning person? (If you're not one, morning people are harder to like than Mondays). Revise when you have most energy.

MAKE THINGS MORE COLOURFUL

Looking at a wall of words in blue or black ink is enough to make anyone see red. Different colours make revision notes memorable.
